10 Ways to Build Community

Community relationships, when built with care and concern for the good of the commons, offer a comforting, nourishing, and collegial safety net when times get tough.

4) Volunteering - Volunteering with a neighbor, hospital or clinic, community center, library, or nature center gives the volunteer a great sense of accomplishment, involvement, and fulfillment, and supports the community in many wonderful ways.

Consider what you may offer as a volunteer: tutoring, mentoring, language practice, literacy, skills development, legal aid, food bank coordination, and translation are some of the many ways in which you reach out to your community and become an integral part of it.

"With New Voices" – Adult Study

A Lenten Journey through Luther's Small Catechism

Here at Grace a six-week study of the Small Catechism will be led by Bishop Main and Pastor Verkouw. It will take place Sunday mornings throughout the Lenten season, beginning on Sunday, March 5th and concluding on Palm Sunday, April 9th. Sessions will be held from 9:00 AM – 10:15 AM in the auditorium.

The study will consider the time in which Luther lived, wrote, and preached. Together the group will look at and reflect upon our basic statements of faith and our sacraments: the Ten Commandments, the Apostles' Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the Sacrament of Holy Baptism, and the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

Whether you remember memorizing Luther's explanations in his catechism from your childhood or come to it with new eyes, this course offers an opportunity to talk about the breadth and depth of the faith held by Lutherans and other Christians throughout the world. You are encouraged to make it a part of your Lenten journey.

Stewardship Snippets

March 12, 2017(2nd Sunday in Lent, Year A)

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him." -John 3:16-17

John 3:16 may be the world's best-known bible verse, but it always needs to be paired with the following verse, which gives it the proper context. All God does is out of love, and God's highest desire is to save the world. Jesus is both God's plan for salvation and God's means of salvation. What's the best way to live as God's loved and saved people?
